

THE WALDORF SCHOOL OF PHILADELPHIA

Transportation Request Form for 2011-2012

Public school districts in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania are obligated to provide transportation services for students within their district whose families opt to enroll them in non-public schools. Each district has its own eligibility requirements which are usually based on the child's age and home distance from the school. You should contact your local district administration office for information about eligibility.

The Waldorf School of Philadelphia makes transportation service requests in behalf of students whose families want this service. The following information is required if you want bus service arranged for your child.
